

This scavenger hunt begins with a home-made scarecrow. We stuffed old jeans and a flannel shirt, a pumpkin head with a wig and straw hat. We had him sitting on our porch for the weeks leading up to Halloween. So the kids had seen him. The night of the party, we took off his head and squirted some ketchup on the neck area and sent the kids to look at him.

The first clue below was pinned to his shirt.

Oh where oh where could my head be..
