

It's been a rough week and I know you've been blue
So I wracked my brain thinking how to help you

As I sat down to ponder, a quick picture flashed by
I think you were 12, though I'm not sure why

I see a big group and hear so much noise
The laughs were coming from both girls and boys

It was a short little memory that was really great
I remembered you were watching "Heavyweights"

My mind started working in its own crazy way.
"Ben Stiller In A Box" would surely brighten your day

So, a Ben Stiller Marathon I have sent as a gift
Looking to give your spirits a lift!!

Hope this brings some fun and laughter back to you.
There's plenty of food, so invite your friends in and enjoy the night! ,
