

Happy Mother's Day

When I was little...

all energy and laughter

Constant exhaustion as you chased after

You nurtured my wings as I learned to fly

In hopes I would soar and aspire so high

Keep out the birdseed and you will see

I will fly back most regularly

There is no doubt that like a bird to its nest

I'll always remember that home is the best!