

'Tis the weeks before Christmas ...much joy and elation
All the kids soon home for holiday vacation!
Carol in her kerchief and Mick in his cap but neither had time for a long winters' nap
There was decorating, shopping and wrapping galore
We were checking our lists.. was there anything more?
No sooner we asked, than what did we hear
But a chorus of voices from far and near
In unison they begged...those kids.... all four

"Can we PLEEEASE do a holiday party encore?!"
